Design team Lexmond vs Lexmond has collaborated with Royal Asscher on a line of sun-bright gold jewelry that has us dreaming of tropical beaches.

Stop what you're doing and come with us to the Seychelles... The Van Lexmond designers chose Paris Fashion Week 2014-2015 to unveil a trip to the tropics in jewelry form, with sun-bright gold pieces inspired by wild island beauty, made in collaboration with Dutch diamond specialists Royal Asscher. The resulting statement necklaces are a ray of pop sunshine for spring, drawing on the succulent shapes of exotic fruit in graphic chokers. You'll find us underneath the mango tree.
